If conversion is impossible because the grading systems differ or the coursework was not graded, it is simply considered and marked "passed". In this case, the coursework or examination will not be included in the final grade. The recognition is indicated in the degree certificate and in the transcript of records.

the English declaration shall be included as well.

- (3) Students shall receive the evaluation for a written supervised examination taken at an alternate exam date ten weeks after the alternate exam date at the latest.

Section 16 – Failing and Redoing Coursework or Retaking Examinations (including Examinations and Preliminary Coursework), Failing the Final Examination Attempt

- (1) Coursework or examinations graded with "failed" ("nicht ausreichend") or "failed" ("nicht bestanden") or are regarded as graded with "failed" ("nicht ausreichend") or "failed" ("nicht bestanden") are considered failed.
- (2) Coursework or examinations which were done as a requirement for an examination and subsequently failed may be repeated. Failing a related examination in the same semester usually means that the preliminary coursework must be redone and passed. The examiner of the retake examination decides on exceptions upon request of a student. In accordance with sentence 3, the request is to be submitted in due time and before the examination concerned takes place, otherwise the preliminary coursework is to be redone.
- (3) Failed examinations may generally be retaken once. If the second examination attempt is not successful (re-sit examination), the student can take a second re-sit examination on one occasion at the most during his or her entire master's program (extra chance). The master's thesis is excluded from the regulation stated in sentence 2.
- (4) The failure of an examination is final if the last available attempt at the examination was not passed. In this case, an official notification shall be issued by the examination committee.
- (5) Students may not retake an examination that they have passed, e.g. to improve their grades.

Section 17 – Annulment of Examination Results

- (1) According to section 13a subsection 1, the grades for individual examinations and coursework are determined by the respective examiner. The following grades may be assigned:

1.0	very good ("sehr gut")	an excellent performance
2.0	good ("gut")	a performance which substantially exceeds the average requirements
3.0	satisfactory ("befriedigend")	a performance corresponding to the average requirements
4.0	fair ("ausreichend")	a performance which, in spite of its flaws, suffices to meet the requirements

Grades may be differentiated by adding or subtracting 0.3. The grades 0.7, 4.3, 4.7 and 5.3 shall not be assigned. In cases of doubt, the grades shall be rounded down in favor of the student.

- (2) An examination is considered passed if it is graded "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend") or "passed". A module is considered passed if each piece of coursework and examination of the courses in the module were passed. If a module consists of several individual examinations, the module grade derives from the average of the individual examinations' grades weighted in ECTS credits that are relevant for the final grade, unless the respective regulations regarding minors taught at other schools are based on a divergent grading system.
- (3) Grades shall be assigned with one decimal. In case of averaged grades, all decimals but the first are dropped without rounding.

Section 17a – Breaches of Procedure

- (1) The examination committee may remedy disturbances of the examination procedure or other breaches of procedure by virtue of office or upon request from a student by deciding on appropriate measures or orders. In particular, the examination committee may order that coursework or examinations shall be retaken by all or by individual students or, in case the principle of equal opportunities was violated, grant an extension or impose another appropriate measure of compensation.
- (2) Any disturbances are to be reported immediately by the affected student during the written examination or oral examination:
 1. in case of a written examination to the supervisor,
 2. in case of an oral examination to the examiner and
 3. in case of any other type of examination to the responsible examiner.

Any other kinds of breaches of procedure are to be reported by the affected student in due time as soon as the student takes note of the particular breach of procedure. The reports according to sentences 1 and 2 shall be entered into the examination minutes. If the disturbances of the examination procedure or any other kind of breaches of procedure relevant to the evaluation of the respective examination are not reported in due time, they are deemed insignificant.

- (1) The master's thesis shall serve to proof that, whilst being supervised, the student is capable of treating a problem of a special subject area of the field of study within a set period of time applying the standard methods of the respective subject field. Moreover, it aims to prove the student's ability to provide scientifically sound findings and present the results in a linguistically and formally adequate manner. The topic of the master's thesis shall allow for the thesis to be completed within the period of time determined in section 9 subsection 2.
- (2) The student shall be granted the chance to put forward suggestions for a topic. However, no legal right arises to be assigned the suggested topic.

The faculty member assigning the master's thesis is the evaluator.
- (4) Upon approval by the examination committee, the master's thesis may be written at an institution other than the university if it is supervised by a faculty member of the University of Mannheim teaching classes in the respective field of study.
- (5) The master's thesis shall be evaluated by the responsible examiner. Section 17 applies to the grading of the master's thesis. If the thesis is graded "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"), two additional examiners appointed by the examination committee shall be consulted. In case of differing evaluations, the master's thesis is considered passed if the majority of the examiners grade it with at least "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend"). In this case, the grade derives from the arithmetic mean of the individual evaluations, which shall be at least "fair" (4.0) ("ausreichend"). The master's thesis is failed if the majority of the examiners grade it "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"). In this case, the grade is "failed" (5.0) ("nicht ausreichend"). The

The medical certificate shall include the required medical results confirming that the student is not able to take the examination.
- (4) It shall not be possible to assert a valid reason if the student took an examination whilst being aware of an illness or on the basis of negligent lack of knowledge of an illness.
